

BROADWAY STROLLERS SHAKEN BY DYNAMITE.

Premature Explosion in the New Foundations of the Herald Square Hotel.

Rocks Thrown in All Directions, Some of them Landing on the Marlborough Hotel.

SHOCK FELT THREE BLOCKS AWAY.

Three Laborers Injured by the Flying Stones, and One of Them, Pasquale Larocco, Will Probably Die.

By the premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge in the excavation for the foundation of the new Herald Square Hotel, at Broadway and Thirty-sixth street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, three men were badly injured, one of them probably fatally.

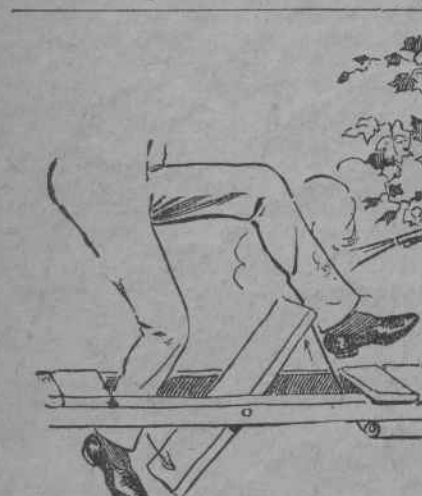

The injured men are: Pasquale Larocco, twenty-eight years old, of No. 825 West Sixty-ninth street, who had his left hand and the thumb of his right hand blown away, and received many lacerations about the arms, face and neck. He was taken to the New York Hospital, where it was said he would probably die.

Phil Alvord, sixty-five years of age, of No. 244 East Forty-fourth street, received a contusion over the left eye and was badly burned. He was taken to the New York Hospital. His injuries are not considered serious.

George Barrow, twenty-five years of age, of No. 113 West Street, had his face, neck and both arms badly torn and cut. His eyes were also injured. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital. His wounds are serious, but he will probably recover.

Foreman Andrew Bradley, of No. 724 Eleventh avenue, was in charge of the work at the time. A hole had been drilled in a large rock just below the Thirty-sixth street sidewalk, about forty feet east of Broadway. A dynamite cartridge of the ordinary kind was fitted in and one of the workmen attempted to push it further with a crowbar.

Then the explosion occurred. The huge

Shot By His Own Trap Gun.

John Clements, forty-three years old, of No. 576 Van Nest street, Long Island City, is in St. John's Hospital, suffering from a painful gunshot wound in the leg. He has a fine garden on his premises, and prides himself on his grapevines. Of late he has been annoyed by small boys stealing his grapes, and he fixed up a trap to catch them. He arranged a gun so that it would go off when the boys got on the vines. Clements had loaded the gun with wadding. Last night after dinner he started to walk about his yard and stepped in the trap himself. It went off and the contents of the gun struck him in the leg.

rock was torn in countless pieces, many of which were thrown high in the air. Some of them fell in the middle of Broadway, while others were carried as far as Sixth avenue, and several coal-sized pieces fell on the roof of the Marlborough Hotel, just across the way.

The laboring Italians were thrown into the pit, ten feet below, and were at once seized by a panic. They ran screaming in all directions and thousands of persons soon collected. The police were on hand almost as soon as the explosion occurred and it was some time before they could restore order. The shock was felt three blocks away.

Foreman Bradley was placed under arrest and locked up in the Thirtieth Street Station. He will have a hearing in Jefferson Market Court this morning. Bradley says if there is any blame it must be on his assistant, James Cody, who had charge of that part of the excavation. Cody has disappeared and cannot be found.

ALMSHOUSE IMPOSED UPON.

Investigation Shows That Fully One-Fifth of the Inmates Should Not Be Public Charges.

As the result of an investigation that the Commissioners of Charities have recently been conducting into the condition of the inmates of the Alms House on Blackwell's Island it was yesterday announced that fully one-fifth of the inmates could not be public charges. The total number of inmates is at present 2,500, and it is believed that fully 500 ought to support themselves or be supported by their families.

One inmate died recently who had a $4,000 account in savings banks. A woman inmate admitted that she had two sons in the city, both of whom were earning good salaries, one of them being a captain in the Fire Department. Other similar cases were found, and the investigation is to be carried further.

The only method of preventing similar abuses in future seems, according to the Commissioners and Superintendent Terry, to be the employment of a much larger number of inspectors to investigate the cases of applicants.

Held Up a Minnesota Stage.

Park Rapids, Minn., Sept. 5.—The Bermidj stage was held up yesterday by two masked road agents. One stopped the team, the driver pulled a revolver and the second robber put a bullet through his hat. This subdued him, and the second robber went through his pockets, taking $33 in cash and a small express order, and disappeared in the brush. The mail was not disturbed. There is no clew to the robbers, but a big posse is in pursuit of them.

Spaniards Rout Rebels.

Madrid, Sept. 5.—Official advices from Manila say that the Spanish gubatoos made an attack upon the insurgents, who were entrenched upon the Isthmus of Cavite and the peninsula, while a column of troops pursued them upon land. The rebels were routed. Four prisoners were shot and 200 transported to the Marianne Islands.

New Mission for Bishop Curtis.

Baltimore, Sept. 5.—Cardinal Gibbons announces that Bishop Curtis, of Wilmington, Del., will come to Baltimore to all an important position as soon as his successor is named by the Pope. A list of priests, from among whom a successor to Bishop Curtis will be named, will soon be sent to Rome.

DRIVEN TO PLUNDER.

Closing of Mills in Passaic Forces Workmen to Forage in Orchards for Subsistence.

It is said that owing to the shutting down of the various mills in Passaic, N. J., during the past few weeks on account of the dullness of business, some of the employees have been in hard circumstances.

It is rumored that some of them have been plundering orchards and other places with the hope of getting something to eat. Last night many gardens in Passaic Bridge were plundered and the deeds are attributed to the hungry unemployed.

NEW COMET DISCOVERED.

Was First Seen by Giacobini, the Nice Astronomer.

Boston, Sept. 5.—A cable message from the European Union of Astronomers to Messrs. Chandler and Ritchie announces the discovery of a new comet by Giacobini, an astronomer at the Nice Observatory. The comet was first seen by him at 8 hours 16 minutes, Greenwich mean time, the position being r. a. 17 hours 10 minutes 32 seconds, declination south 7 degrees 39 minutes. The comet has a motion of plus 2 minutes in r. a. and south 4 minutes.

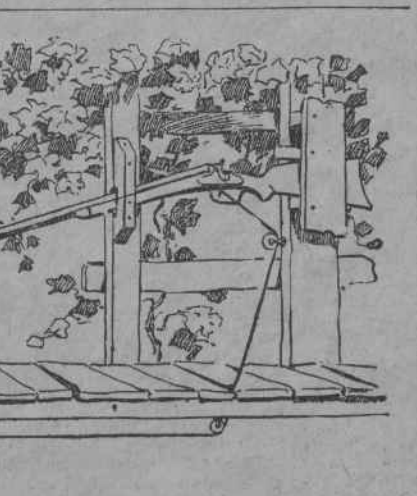

A BIG DEAL.

Valuable Real Estate Bought for the Baumann Brothers' Store.

Pessimists may howl and the calamity howlers may growl, but facts are hard to overcome. That business men pay no attention whatever to the well-meaning (perhaps) but misguided individuals is clearly demonstrated by the enormous investments that are daily being made in real estate and business enterprises. One of the largest real estate deals in the history of this city was closed last week between J. J. Astor and Baumann Brothers. Millions of dollars are involved in this transaction, and that the firm is one of the oldest and most reliable in this city lends greater weight to the transaction. The plot of ground secured is located on the southeast corner of Seventeenth street and Sixth avenue, and includes buildings from Nos. 238 to 266 on the avenue, and running east on Seventeenth street 215 feet.

Baumann Brothers for many years conducted the largest furniture and carpet establishment in this city in a mammoth building running from Fourteenth to Thirtieth street, near Union square, where they had long leases on the building, which expired May 1 last. Owing to their inability to secure a building suitable to their wants in a more desirable location they were compelled to temporarily retire from business, and their best customers will be pleased to learn that they will reopen in their new location on Wednesday next, September 8.

DESPERATE BURGLARS FIGHT THEIR CAPTORS.

Overtaken by Two Policemen

After a Chase Through the Streets.

One Draws a Revolver in the Struggle and Snaps It at a Bluecoat and It Misses Fire.

RUSE TO ESCAPE NEARLY WORKED.

One Prisoner Feigns Illness, and on the Way to the Hospital Knocks His Guard from the Ambulance and Breaks Away.

The police of the Macdonald Street Station yesterday afternoon captured two burglars after a chase and a hard struggle. The prisoners are Thomas Evans, alias Thomas Lynch, who says he is a printer and lives in Perth Amboy, N. J., and Patrick Dolan, who refused to give his address.

Evans and Dolan forced an entrance into the apartments of Daniel Lane, on the second floor of No. 111 Chambers street, shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The burglars climbed up a fire escape and smashed open the window. They ransacked the rooms and were packing up a lot of goods when Lane returned from his work and surprised them.

The burglars rushed at Lane and knocked him down. They then made their way to the street. Lane ran to a window and shouted for help. Patrolmen Michael J. Gargin and Daniel O'Connor saw the men running and gave chase. At Greenwich street O'Connor caught up to Evans. The latter drew a revolver and snapped it at the policeman. Luckily it missed fire. Before he could draw back the hammer again O'Connor knocked the revolver out of his hand. Evans started to run again, but the policeman caught him before he got very far.

Meanwhile Dolan was giving Patrolman Gargin more than he bargained for. He struck, bit and scratched the policeman, and it took nine men to hold him. The prisoners were then put into a truck and taken to the police station.

When searched for brandy, bit and a flummy were found on them. They were about to be taken to a cell in the basement when Dolan, who had long leases on the building, which expired May 1 last. Owing to their inability to secure a building suitable to their wants in a more desirable location they were compelled to temporarily retire from business, and their best customers will be pleased to learn that they will reopen in their new location on Wednesday next, September 8.
